BEAT THE HEAT TOMORROW, JULY 1, AT NORTH CLACKAMAS AQUATIC PARK

Clackamas County, OR – With temperatures expected to soar up into the high 90s tomorrow, the North Clackamas Aquatic Park is adding an extra Big Surf! public swim from 5:30-7:30 p.m. July 1 to keep people cool - and for a very cool price - just $5 per person.

“We don’t usually have a Tuesday night swim, but we wanted to make sure people have a great place to cool off tomorrow and have fun,” said Jason Kemmerich, Aquatic and Recreation Supervisor for North Clackamas Parks & Recreation District.

During Big Surf! public swim, the entire facility is open, allowing water lovers to enjoy everything from the water slides and wave pool to the Toddler Splash Zone and the diving board.

North Clackamas Parks and Recreation District is a service district of Clackamas County dedicated to providing exceptional parks and recreation programs, facilities and services. Voters approved the formation of the District in 1990 because they saw the need for greater parks and recreation services in the north end of the county. The District – which serves more than 116,000 residents in a 36-square mile area – includes the cities of Happy Valley, Milwaukie and a large area of unincorporated Clackamas County. It includes more than 38 parks, 25 natural areas, 15 miles of trails including the 6-mile Trolley Trail, Mount Talbert Nature Park and three facilities: Hood
