

HOOD VIEW PARK DEVELOPMENT COSTS

Hood View Park, a state-of-the-art 36-acre community park, is the largest project in NCPRD's history. The complex is right in the heart of Happy Valley, serving the community directly with a wide variety of adult and youth sports programs over the years. This infographic shows the many funding sources that went into getting the project from concept to completion.

