Name: _____ Date: _____ 2012

Priority use of Milwaukie Center Community Garden plots is for older adults and people with disabilities living in North Clackamas Parks and Recreation District. After May 15, 2012, if garden spaces are available, people under age 55 living in NCPRD may apply for a space.

Due to high demand for garden spaces, initially only one space will be permitted per household. Between April 2- May 15, 2012, only one space can be reserved and paid for. After May 15, 2012, if garden spaces are still available, you may then apply for one additional space.

 Please check type of growing space you wish to reserve for the coming growing season, indicating both first and second choices:

Raised Beds

GARDEN APPLICANT AGREEMENT

I AGREE TO:

- Grow vegetables, flowers or seasonable plants for my own use and not for sale;
- Plant and maintain my garden, using water conservation practices such as mulching, early morning or late day deep watering or other means;
- Keep weeds in my area under reasonable control and deposit garden debris in designated compost areas;
- Keep aisles and planter edges free of containers, tools, plant material, etc.
- Treat community garden equipment (hoses, tools, etc.) with care; and
- Harvest produce and clear my plot of all plant debris no later than October 31, 2012.

I understand that the NCPRD/Milwaukie Center and Master Gardeners cannot prevent damage or loss to individual gardens as a result of vandalism or intruders in the course of the growing season.

I hereby release and hold harmless Clackamas County Master Gardeners and North Clackamas Parks & Recreation District, Milwaukie Center, its officers, agents and employees, from all claims, actions and demands that may arise from my involvement in the Community Garden.

I have read and understand the Garden Applicant Agreement. I agree to maintain my assigned space through the growing season and abide by the regulations stated in the Agreement. If I am unable to maintain my space, I will notify the Milwaukie Center staff as soon as possible.
