THE PUBLIC IS INVITED TO NCPRD'S COST RECOVERY WORKSHOP ON OCT. 9

Clackamas County, OR – North Clackamas Parks and Recreation District (NCPRD) is working through a year-long process of updating the District-wide Master Plan. As part of that effort, the public is invited to a Cost Recovery Workshop on Oct. 9 to help shape the way NCPRD establishes fees in the future.

WHAT: Cost Recovery Workshop

As part of the Master Plan Update, NCPRD is developing a Cost Recovery Plan. The outcome of this workshop will guide how we establish fees in the future. We want your opinions to help us make those thoughtful decisions.

WHEN: 6:30-9 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 9.

A light dinner and childcare will be provided.

WHERE: Milwaukie Center, 5440 S.E. Kellogg Creek Dr.

RSVP REQUIRED: Please call Fiona Gwozdz at (503)742-4352 or email fgwozdz@clackamas.us if you plan to attend the workshop.

The intent of NCPRD's Master Plan (which will also include a Strategic Plan and Cost Recovery Plan) is to identify how to most effectively meet the needs of a changing community over the next decade and beyond in regards to parks, recreation and programs. The project is being guided by a series of meetings with community leaders and stakeholders, along with contributions from residents, participants and NCPRD staff.

The new Master Plan will prioritize the community's needs and desires for upgrading existing facilities and services as well as creating new parks and facilities. It will also help to steer the phasing, timing and funding options for upcoming projects, programs and services.
