NORTH CLACKAMAS PARKS & RECREATION DISTRICT TO LAUNCH NEW WEBSITE

Clackamas, OR – North Clackamas Parks & Recreation District (NCPRD) is excited to announce the launch of a new website, which goes live Monday, April 1. It is located at the same address -- www.ncprd.com.

The new site welcomes visitors with a vivid color palette that matches the new NCPRD logo, a clean and uncluttered design and an improved navigation system. The new menus allow users to quickly find what they are looking for among the many great opportunities provided by NCPRD.

The site is divided into six main sections with drop-down menus: About Us, Parks and Trails, Aquatic Park, Milwaukie Center, Sports and Recreation. This user-friendly format gives visitors a detailed selection of programs, services and amenities to choose from. New landing pages have also been created for the Home, Aquatic Park, Milwaukie Center, Sports and Recreation pages and include rotating feature stories which will be updated frequently to provide visitors with the latest news, programs and services.

From exploring new parks and trails to getting fit in a Zumba class or zipping down water slides, choose your next adventure by checking out everything NCPRD has to offer on our new site at ncprd.com.
