Call to Order

DAC meeting was called to order by Michael Bork at 5:34 p.m. A quorum was present.

Action Items

- Approval of DAC Meeting Summary
  - The summary from the DAC meeting held on July 14, 2021 was approved.
  - Clackamas County Commissioner Paul Savas asked that members and those in attendance introduce themselves, which members and staff did so as requested.
- Annual Election of Officers
  - Chair nominations - all members present were called upon to vote and the vote was 7/3 decision, nominating Grover Bornefeld, for Chair person. Grover Bornefeld accepted the Chair position.

At 5:54 p.m. Director Bork turned the meeting over to newly elected Chair, Grover Bornefeld.

- Vice-Chair nominations – Jan Albrecht nominated Joel Bergman as Vice-Chair. No other nominations were made. Joel Bergman accepted the Vice-Chair position.

Discussion Agenda – No Action Required

- Boardman Wetlands: Park Naming
  - NCPRD staff, Tonia Williamson, provided a historical naming timeline per a presentation. Director Bork recommended letting the name stand as it is. Grand opening of Jennings Lodge Nature Park to be determined.

- Department Introduction: Asset Development
  - Heather Koch, NCPRD staff gave a brief overview of the mission to enrich the parks through planning, funding and acquisition; additionally, repair and replacement of capital assets with public engagement and a system plan.
- District-Wide Capital Project Spotlight: Milwaukie Bay Park
  - Heather Koch reviewed the project timeline and final design. The design creates a recreational water front in a joint effort with the City of Milwaukie. This is to date a 20 year investment on past work.

Citizen Participation (limited to 3 minutes per person)

- Dick and Sally Shook requested that the Milwaukie Bay Park coordinate with the removal of the Kellogg Lake Dam; we, in the North Clackamas Water Coalition are actively working with the City of Milwaukie to remove the dam and restore the lower regions of Kellogg Creek. Dick wished the new board good luck.

DAC Member Reports

- Vice-Chair, Joel Bergman –
  - Reported the Friends of the Milwaukie have cancelled the Clackamas on Tap fundraising event. Raffle tickets are available online and donations are appreciated.
- Anatta Blackmarr –
  - Reported that she views NCPRD decisions in the context of climate change and decisions should include shade through tree canopies.
- Chair, Grover Bornefeld –
  - Would like to see equity throughout the district and would like to prioritize and value the district tree canopies.

Director Reports

Michael Bork provided the director reports.

- Michael Bork shared his appreciation and thanked everyone for their support.
- The focus for the September meeting will be a capital report on the Concord School.
